Whether you are restoring an old bungalow, building a new house, or “bungalow-izing” your existing house, you are sure to find the resources you need upstairs in our extensive book collection.

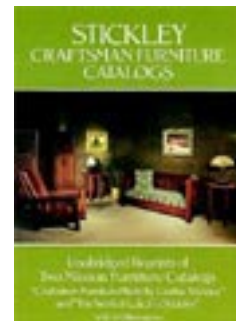

Choose from books with house plans, advice for traditional bungalow exterior colors, interior design elements of the period, and contemporary interpretations of the bungalow style. Many of the books provide guidelines and inspiration for infusing today’s modern amenities into your new or existing home without sacrificing the home’s original charm or historic character.

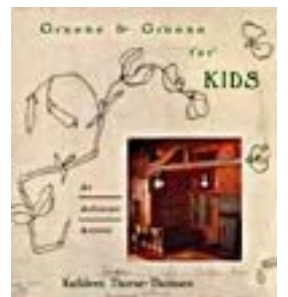

Our Frank Lloyd Wright collection includes books about his design work, specific buildings, stained glass designs, graphic designs, his autobiography and more!

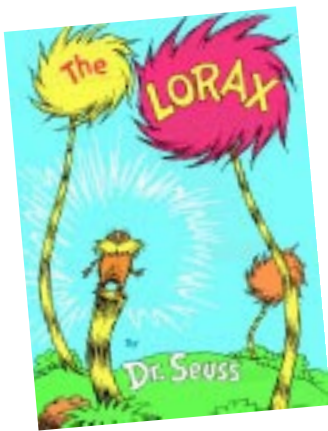

The original Stickley furniture catalogs are a great reference for those interested in his furniture. Our selection also includes catalogs from other major furniture makers of the time such as Limbert, Roycroft, and Come-Packt.

Books about the California architects, Greene & Greene, even include one for the budding young designer. Adults will enjoy it, too!

Dr. Seuss!

Renditions carries the complete line of books written by Dr. Seuss. Many of these may be your childhood favorites; many of them may be new to you. So, introduce them to the children in your life and discover the wonder of Dr. Seuss all over again!

NEW!

Dr. Seuss board games, card games, and puzzles, too!
